

Ecclesiastical Law Society

The Ecclesiastical Law Society is a charity which exists to promote the study of ecclesiastical and canon law, particularly in the Church of England and those churches in communion with it.

The Ecclesiastical Law Journal:

Members receive copies of the Ecclesiastical Law Journal.

Published by Cambridge University Press three times per year, the Ecclesiastical Law Journal features:

- scholarly articles on the canon law and ecclesiastical law of the Church of England
- comparative papers on the law of other traditions
- comments on recent developments
- consistory court case summaries
- book reviews
- synod and parliamentary reports
- conference reports

The Ecclesiastical Law Society also provides:

- conferences for members on ecclesiastical law themes
- a website www.ecclawsoc.org.uk regularly updated with news, links, and educational resources (including a members-only area)
- a London lecture series
- a regular email newsletter
- events for those involved in ecclesiastical law training
- a biennial Lyndwood lecture in association with the Canon Law Society of Great Britain and Ireland

Membership is open to all. Join today at www.ecclawsoc.org.uk/join or contact the Administrator email admin@ecclawsoc.org.uk post The Ecclesiastical Law Society, 1 The Sanctuary, London, SW1P 3JT DX 145940 Westminster 4 phone 020 7222 5381